

Lisa Ramirez

A Friendly Face for Your Family Immigration Needs

Lisa practices immigration law exclusively, specializing in family-based immigration, victim visas and business-based immigration. She is bilingual in English and Spanish. Lisa appears before U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services and works on adjustment of status and consular processing abroad, on behalf of foreign nationals seeking family-based immigration benefits. She has represented clients in Immigration Courts bond proceedings and to obtain relief from removal. During the early part of her career, Lisa worked in Dallas-Fort Worth where she spent nearly half a decade representing a Fortune 500 company in all its business immigration needs. Prior to joining Weinstock Immigration Lawyers, Lisa worked in both large and small firms where she managed victim's visas and family-based visas departments.

A Dedicated Professional Passionate about Her Clients

Lisa cares about each individual client and realizes that each case is unique. She devotes her time and patience to assist her clients with compassion, understanding how important this process is to each of them. Lisa has seen how devastating the impacts of family separation can be, so she stands up to fight for her clients.
