

Ariana Reese

A Friendly Face for Your Family Immigration Needs

Ariana practices immigration law exclusively, specializing in business-based immigration and family-based immigration. Ariana appears before U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services and works on both immigrant and nonimmigrant employment-based visas, together with adjustment of status and naturalizations, on behalf of foreign nationals seeking a variety of immigration benefits. She has extensive experience with analyzing and responding to complex Requests for Evidence and Notices of Intent to Deny for both family- and employment-based petitions. Prior to joining Weinstock Immigration Lawyers, Ariana worked for both large and small firms, with clients ranging from extraordinary ability self-petitioners to large-scale corporate organizations, including Fortune 500 companies with substantial global mobility needs.

A Dedicated Professional Passionate about Her Clients

Having over four years of experience in immigration law, Ariana is deeply invested in helping families achieve their individual “American Dream” and providing top-notch service and expertise in global mobility for companies and their employees. Ariana works diligently to provide personalized attention to each of her clients to ensure the highest levels of satisfaction and reassurance throughout the process and to overcome any obstacles that may arise.

Areas of Expertise in Immigration Law

- Non-immigrant visas: H-1B, L-1A, L-1B, O-1A, O-1B, E-2, TN, F-1
- Employment-based immigrant petitions: EB-1, EB-2, EB-3
- National Interest Waivers
- Family based immigration including I-130 and Adjustment of Status
- Labor certifications (PERM) and PERM Audits
- Removal of Conditions (I-751)
- USCIS interviews and Naturalization
- Complex RFEs, NOIDs, and Motions to Reopen/Reconsider

Organizational Membership

- State Bar of Georgia

Languages

- English (fluent)

Education

Juris Doctor, Georgia State University, College of Law
Bachelor of Arts in Political Science, Pennsylvania State University

Contact

areese@visa-pros.com